UNDERSTANDING AND APPLYING NFPA 25

In this interactive presentation we will discuss the scope and purpose of NFPA 25 including an update on changes to the NFPA 25 2014 edition and hot topics for future editions. In addition, we will discuss the record-retention requirements from NFPA 25 and how “3rd Party” providers figure in to complying with this Standard.

Our presenter for this topic is Jason Webb. Jason is the Director of Inspection, Testing and Maintenance for the National Fire Sprinkler Association. Prior to coming to NFSA, he served twenty five years in the fire service including over twelve years as Fire Marshal with the Belton, Missouri Fire Department. He is an accomplished author and instructor, providing continuing education for fire and building code officials and design professionals for over a decade. As an active member of the International Code Council, he has served on several code development committees and on the Board of Directors of two ICC Chapters including three terms as president of the Fire Marshals Association of Missouri. He is a member of the ICC, NFPA, and SFPE.
